

MEMBER COMMUNICATION ABOUT PASSING OF HANG GLIDING PILOT - 13/3/2019

Passing of Bevan Taylor.

It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Bevan Taylor, a dedicated member of the Hang Gliding Federation of Australia. Bevan Taylor tragically died in a Hang Gliding accident near the wheatbelt town of Westonia WA, on March 2nd, whilst undertaking a practice flight. in the lead up to the WA Hang Gliding Championships.

practice flight, in the lead up to the fatal hang gliding event.

HGFA Operations and Meriden Police investigators were immediately mobilised, and a comprehensive investigation is now underway, the results of which will assist Coronial authorities.

Members will understand that these investigations and our review of the information gathered, will be required before conclusions can be made.

We would like to thank the local pilots and event organisers, who provided immediate and invaluable assistance in the situation.

Our thoughts and condolences are with Bevan's family and his many Hang Gliding friends at this sad time.

- Brett Coupland, General Manager & Operations Manager, HGFA
